

BOUNDARY 1

Who confirms that a shortfall is a real gap?

Stand by the option you back. One voice per option. The sponsor rules.

BOUNDARY 1 · OPTION A

The resourcing lead

Closest to the search.

BOUNDARY 1 · OPTION B

The practice lead

Owens the skill, and accepts the gap.

BOUNDARY 1 · OPTION C

A short gap review

Two of them, weekly. Slower, harder to argue with.

BOUNDARY 2

When records disagree about who is free, which one wins?

Stand by the option you back. One voice per option. The sponsor rules.

BOUNDARY 2 · OPTION A

The manager's confirmation

Dated, and it ends after a set time.

BOUNDARY 2 · OPTION B

Workday, unless the manager overrides

With a reason recorded.

BOUNDARY 2 · OPTION C

The newer of the two

Simple, but can reward old updates.

BOUNDARY 3

Where does Contract-to-Capacity hand over?

Stand by the option you back. One voice per option. The sponsor rules.

BOUNDARY 3 · OPTION A

Release questions go out first

Asked before any gap is declared.

BOUNDARY 3 · OPTION B

Declared gaps go to hiring or growing the skill

Only declared gaps, with their evidence and cause.

BOUNDARY 3 · OPTION C

Both of these

Two hand-offs.

BOUNDARY 4

What may be held before signature, and who approves?

Stand by the option you back. One voice per option. The sponsor rules.

BOUNDARY 4 · OPTION A

Holds from contract drafting, engagement lead approves

For a limited time, released if the deal slips.

BOUNDARY 4 · OPTION B

No holds before signature

Safe for the business, slow for the client.

BOUNDARY 4 · OPTION C

Holds plus early work at risk, with a limit

Finance sets the limit.
